Commuter Students:

An Integral Part of the Liberty Family

Dear Commuter Students,

Your decision to move off campus marks a major milestone in your college experience and in your life. For many of you, this is the first time you've faced the responsibility of living on your own. As your Chancellor, I wish you the best during this transition and hope this will be a positive growing experience for you.

I would also like to remind you that, even though you're not living on campus, you still represent Liberty University in the community. I would like to encourage you to be good neighbors to those around you – above reproach and representing Christ in all that you do.

No matter where you call "home," you are still an integral part of the Liberty family.

The faculty, staff and administration want to see you succeed and become the person God has intended you to be. Please contact the Commuter Affairs office at (434) 592-3067 with any questions or concerns you may have.

I hope this year at Liberty will be your best ever!

Sincerely,
Jerry L. Falwell, Jr.
 Chancellor, Liberty University ■

Do Your Homework Before You Sign a Lease

1. Inspect the Property

Talk to current tenants and other people who know the neighborhood. Drive by the neighborhood at night. Research crime statistics for the area. Lynchburg Police Department Cindy Kozerow, Crime Prevention Specialist (434) 455-6145

2. Ask Questions, Negotiate, and Understand the Terms of the Lease

It is perfectly acceptable to ask the landlord about anything you don't understand and also to negotiate the terms of the lease. Make sure the lease protects your interests, not just the landlord's. If changes are made, make sure they are included on all copies of the lease with all party's signatures. Every Lease Should Clearly State:

- ▶ NAMES OF TENANTS AND LANDLORD
- ▶ ADDRESS OF RENTAL UNIT
- ▶ RULES AND REGULATIONS
- ▶ AMOUNT OF RENT/PER MONTH

- ▶ DATE RENT IS DUE
- ▶ SECURITY DEPOSIT DETAILS
- ▶ RIGHT OF ENTRY
- ▶ RIGHT TO SUBLEASE
- ▶ CONDITION OF UNIT
- ▶ FURNITURE PROVIDED AND INVENTORY
- ▶ LIST OF NEEDED REPAIRS
- ▶ RESPONSIBILITY FOR REPAIRS

3. Consider Signing Separate Written Leases

When sharing an apartment, house, or room with others try to get separate written leases. Joint and oral leases are legal in Virginia but more often than not can prove to cause unwanted headaches. KEEP A COPY FOR YOURSELF!

4. SUBLEASING REQUIRES WRITTEN CONSENT OF LANDLORD

CAUTION: If the person you find to sublease your dwelling fails to pay rent, it is ultimately YOUR responsibility. ▶

COMPARE COMMON LEASES

It is highly recommended to get your lease in writing!

	LEASE FOR A TERM (Typically 6, 9, or 12 months)	MONTH-TO-MONTH
Rent can change each month.	NO	YES
You may have to move on short notice.	NO	YES
You can end the contract on short notice.	NO	YES

Consequences of Breaking Your Lease

Behind on paying rent beyond a given grace period?

5-Day Notice

A 5-Day Notice to Pay or Vacate is given to tenants who are behind on their rent beyond any applicable grace period. This is an official warning to the tenant to pay the amount due, vacate the premises, or face eviction charges before an official complaint is filed in court.

How to avoid getting noticed?

PAY YOUR RENT ON TIME!

Being too noisy? Hiding a pet? Messy garbage?

21/30 Notice

A 21/30 Notice is given to a tenant who has violated a non-rent related provision of the lease or the Virginia Residential Landlord Tenant Act. This notice gives the tenant 21 days to fix the problem, 30 days to vacate the premises, or face eviction.

How to avoid getting noticed?

ABIDE BY THE PROVISIONS OF YOUR LEASE! ■

Budget-Conscious Shopping Tips

What do college students typically over spend on? FOOD!
Learn the do's and don'ts for spending money on groceries and eating out.

Do

Plan Ahead

- ▶ Choose recipes using what staples you already have
- ▶ Make a list...and stick to it!
- ▶ Cut coupons
- ▶ Shop 1 day/week

Shop Smart

- ▶ Look Low: less expensive items are on the lower shelves
- ▶ Buy Bulk: share purchases with roommates
- ▶ Cheaper By the Pound: meats and cheeses
- ▶ Use Frequent Shopper Discount Programs
- ▶ Check the Check Out: watch for errors at the register

- ▶ Buy Store Brands
- ▶ Buy Frozen Veggies: fresh produce spoils quickly

Dine Smart

- ▶ Take leftovers home
- ▶ Dine less often
- ▶ Skip expensive desserts and beverages

Don't

- ▶ Impulse Buy
- ▶ Shop While Hungry
- ▶ Forget To Plan Ahead
- ▶ Buy Non-Food Items at a Grocery Store
- ▶ Use Prepackaged Meals ■

Moving In

1. Get all current damages in writing on Day 1, in conjunction with the landlord.

2. Understand your responsibilities.

Tenant will...

- ▶ abide by terms of the lease.
- ▶ keep the premises safe and clean.
- ▶ remove trash in accordance with local statute.
- ▶ use utilities reasonably.
- ▶ provide landlord access during normal working hours when given reasonable notice (at least 48 hours) is given.
- ▶ NOT deliberately or negligently damage the premises or permit another to do the same.

Landlord will...

- ▶ comply with all state and local codes and regulations governing maintenance, use, construction, & appearance of the dwelling.
- ▶ maintain all electrical, plumbing, and other facilities supplied by landlord.
- ▶ make repairs and arrangements necessary to keep the dwelling and property in the same condition as it was by law at the beginning of the tenancy.
- ▶ maintain and keep in good repair all furniture, fixtures, and equipment belonging to the landlord.

What to do if the property needs repairs?

For complete information, please refer to the Residential Landlord and Tenant Act (1988).

What if...?

We have a rodent or insect problem?

- ▶ Call your landlord. If nothing is done, put your request in writing, and notify the City of Lynchburg Code Enforcement Office. (434) 856-2489

My property needs repairs?

- ▶ Identify the problem and determine who is responsible for the repair.
- ▶ Get proof of the problem.
- ▶ Give proper WRITTEN notice to Landlord to fix the problem.
- ▶ Allow a "reasonable time" of 30 days to repair. (Only urgent heating, kitchen, or bathroom sanitation needs should be addressed within 24 hours.)
- ▶ Take the Landlord to court if: the repair is still not done, and your health or safety is at stake, or the Landlord breached the lease. General District Court (434) 847-1639.
- ▶ Pay rent into the court (means of legally withholding rent from the landlord).

I have a disagreement with my landlord?

- ▶ Try and reach an agreement. After reaching an agreement, get it in writing. Include anything that was agreed upon in the letter.
- ▶ Virginia Legal Aide Society may be able to provide assistance. Call (434) 846-1326.
- ▶ File comments about your experience with your landlord with the Commuter Affairs Office.

Moving Out

- ▶ CLEAN: Leave the property in the condition you found it.
- ▶ CHECK OUT: Complete a Damage Checklist with landlord.
- ▶ ENSURE ALL BILLS ARE PAID
- ▶ LEAVE A FORWARDING ADDRESS: Your security deposit will be mailed to you. ■

Off-Campus Safety

1. SECURITY DEPOSIT

Complete a "Damage Checklist" to note the condition of the carpets, appliances, walls, etc...before moving in to protect your security deposit against damage claims. Make sure your landlord walks through with you and you both sign the form. Forms can be found on the Commuter Affairs web page.

2. RENTER'S INSURANCE

RENTERS ARE 40% MORE LIKELY TO BE VICTIMS OF CRIME THAN HOMEOWNERS.

Consider purchasing Renter's Insurance to protect your valuables against damage or loss due to theft, medical expenses for guests injured on your property and temporary living expenses should disaster strike your home. Get a quote from your current car insurance carrier, check with your parents' homeowner's insurance, and then check with local insurance agents in town.

3. SECURE YOUR HOME & CAR

- ▶ Keep house and car doors locked, even when you are home!
- ▶ Secure all windows.
- ▶ Keep a light and TV on while you are out.
- ▶ Leave porch lights on during the night.

4. STAY ALERT TO YOUR SURROUNDINGS

- ▶ Be aware of your surroundings upon entering and exiting your home and car.
- ▶ Have your key in hand when approaching your door.
- ▶ Keep your car locked, with valuables out of sight.
- ▶ Make sure your cell phone is fully charged and easily accessible.
- ▶ Trust your instincts: if it doesn't feel right...avoid it!
- ▶ Report suspicious people and/or vehicles to the police.

5. SAFETY IN NUMBERS

Always let someone know where you are going and when to expect you back. ■

Welcome to Lynchburg – 25 City Facts

1. Founding Father

Lynchburg was named for its founder, John Lynch, who at the age of 17 started a ferry service across the James River in 1757. He was also responsible for Lynchburg's first bridge across the river, which replaced the ferry in 1812.

2. 45 Acres

In October 1786, the Virginia General Assembly granted John Lynch a charter for a town. The 45 acres granted for the town were his own land. Lynchburg was incorporated as a town in 1805 and as a city in 1852.

3. Last Tribe

The Monacan Indian tribe lived in the Lynchburg area until well into the 17th century. Their chief village, Rassawek, stood near where the James and Rivanna Rivers meet in Fluvanna County. They were driven westward or killed by the Powhatans and Iroquois. Descendants of the Monacan now live in the Bear Mountain area of Amherst County.

4. Quaker Meeting House

The Society of Friends, or Quakers, was the first religious group to settle in Lynchburg. Although Charles Lynch, Sr. was a Roman Catholic, his wife, Sarah and daughter were instrumental in founding the South River Meeting House of the Society of Friends, the city's first house of worship. Although there were many Quakers among early settlers in Lynchburg, the numbers decreased as agriculture and industry in the South became increasingly dependent upon slavery, which the Friends opposed. The Meeting House, located on Fort Avenue, was restored and is now part of Quaker Memorial Presbyterian Church.

5. Miller-Claytor House

Built in 1791 by John Miller, a tavern owner and later owned by Samuel Claytor, the Miller-Claytor House was the fourth house to be constructed in Lynchburg. It was moved from the corner of 8th Street and Church Street to Riverside Park and restored in 1936 as a Sesqui-centennial project of the Lynchburg Historical Society.

6. Seven Hills

College Hill, Garland Hill, Daniel's Hill, Federal Hill, Diamond Hill, White Rock Hill, and Franklin Hill were the original "Seven Hills" of the City of Lynchburg.

7. Miller Park

Samuel Miller, born on June 30, 1792 in Albemarle County, made a fortune buying and selling stocks and bonds. Upon his death, he left money to establish the Miller Home for Girls in Lynchburg and the Miller Home for Boys in Albemarle County. He also left Miller Park to the City of Lynchburg for the benefit of all citizens.

8. Point of Honor

Built around 1815 by Dr. George Cabell, Sr., an eminent physician whose most famous patient was Patrick Henry. Point of Honor was the home of important Lynchburg area families, including the Daniels, Paynes, and Owens. Although not documented, it is possible that at some time Point of Honor may have been used as a dueling ground. However, since dueling was prohibited, it is speculated it occurred on the property in Campbell County to escape the Lynchburg magistrate.

9. Nichols Tavern

As early as 1815, the Federal style structure known today as the Joseph Nichols Tavern was a thriving "ordinary" or inn, near an extension of the Old Ferry Road, now the corner of Fifth and Madison Streets. It is probable that Thomas Jefferson lodged at the Tavern on his way from Monticello to Poplar Forest. In the 1840s the site became known as the Western Hotel and has since served as a hotel, a brothel and a rooming house. It was restored in 1975.

10. Love Apple

According to local legend, Thomas Jefferson, who was visiting the owners of the Miller-Claytor House on his way to his Poplar Forest home, took a bite of the "poisonous love apple." Supposedly, this was the first time anyone had eaten this fruit, which we now call the tomato, in Virginia.

11. "First Citizen"

Max Guggenheimer, Jr., born in Germany in 1856, was a leader in Lynchburg's business community. Guggenheimer joined his brother-in-law, Nathaniel Guggenheimer, in running the Guggenheimer store. Soon after his brother-in-law's death, Guggenheimer closed the retail business and began the first wholesale distributing house for shoes and boots in Lynchburg, called Witt and Watkins. Guggenheimer served as director of the Lynchburg National Bank and organized and served as the first president of the Lynchburg Cotton Mill. In the last quarter of the 19th century and the early 20th century, he enjoyed the prestige of being called "Lynchburg's First Citizen."

12. Packet Boat

Packet Boat "Marshall," located in Riverside Park, carried General Thomas J. "Stonewall" Jackson's body to Lexington after he was mistakenly killed by his own sentry. On May 10, 1863, the Orange and Alexandria Railroad brought Jackson's remains to Lynchburg and made the transfer to the packet boat with the appropriate ceremonies.

13. Lynchburg as State Capitol

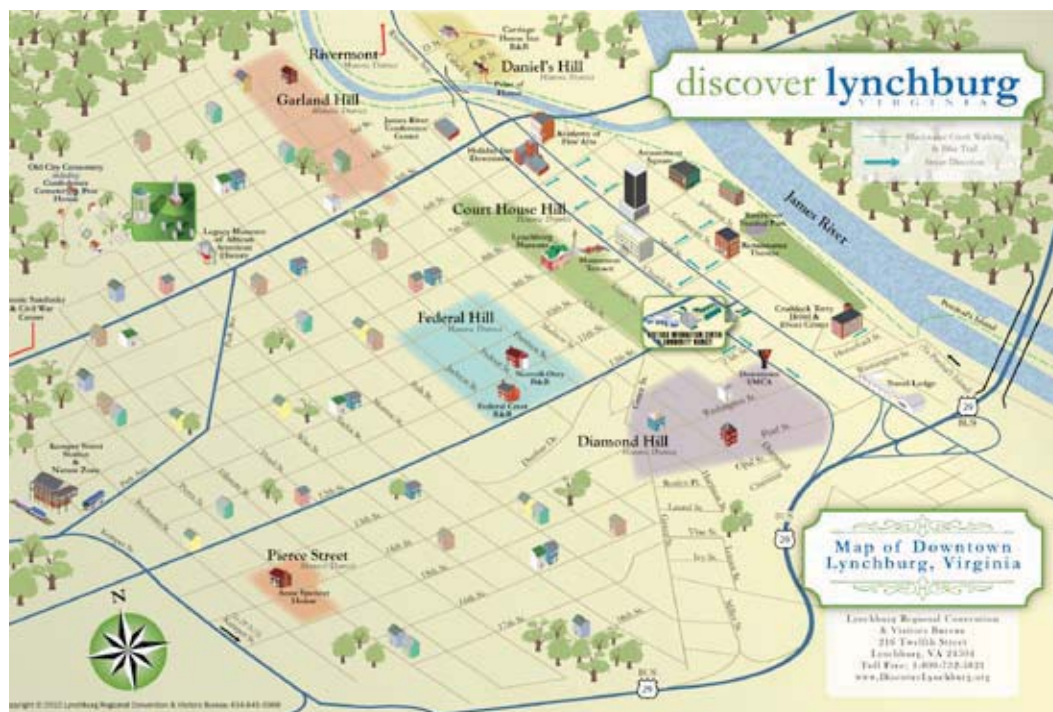

From April 6 to 10, 1865, Lynchburg served as the capital of Virginia. Under Governor William Smith, the executive and legislative branches of the Commonwealth moved to Lynchburg for the few days between the fall of Richmond and the fall of the Confederacy.

14. School Days

On July 11, 1870, a system of public schools was established by law in Virginia. The Lynchburg public school system officially began September 22, 1870. Abram Frederick Biggers, great-grandson of John Lynch, was Lynchburg's first superintendent of schools.

15. First on the Air

In October 1868, Dr. Malcolm (Mahlon) Loomis, a part-time resident of Lynchburg, used a vertical antenna, a high-frequency detector and a sparkgap transmitter to successfully send electro-magnetic waves through the atmosphere, thus inventing radio, six years before the birth of the "father of radio," Guglielmo Marconi. Despite records that indicate Loomis invented the radio, he lacked the necessary funds to perfect his equipment and gain recognition for his invention. ▶

16. Famous Undertaker

In 1881, Lynchburg native William D. Diuguid invented the church truck by putting wheels on a catafalque, which had long been used as a stationary resting place for caskets. The church truck is still used by funeral directors nationwide. W. D. Diuguid, Inc., was founded in 1817 and is the second oldest funeral home in continuing service in the United States.

17. Centennial

Lynchburg's Centennial celebration was held October 12 - 15, 1886, in conjunction with the Agricultural Fair. Festivities included a parade, fireworks, a band and horse races. John Warwick Daniel gave the opening address. On November 29, a centennial oak tree was planted in Miller Park. The tree is still standing today. In 1886 Lynchburg was the fourth largest city in Virginia; there were 49 miles of street, five of which were paved.

18. Famous Products

In 1889, Dr. Charles Brown Fleet, a young pharmacist who moved to Lynchburg in 1869, invented and began selling his Fleet's Chap-Stick lip balm. In 1893, Fleet developed the formula for phospho-soda, the basic ingredient for the Fleet Enema. Organized as C.B. Fleet Co., Inc., in 1916, the company developed the first disposable, small volume enema in 1953 and the first disposable douche product, Summer's Eve, in 1973.

19. Making the Grade

Randolph-Macon Woman's College (currently named Randolph College and is now co-ed) was the first women's college in the South to be accredited and to receive a Phi Beta Kappa chapter. Founded in 1893 by Dr. William Waugh Smith, the college represented the South as one of the sixteen colleges for women in the United States classified "Division A" by the United States Bureau of Education in the early 1900s. It was ranked with Vassar and Smith.

20. First Hospital

In 1895, Dr. A. W. Terrell and Dr. Samuel Lee established the first hospital on record in Lynchburg—St. Andrew's Home, a private hospital at 917 Court Street. Terrell was the physician for Randolph-Macon Woman's College for 49 years.

21. If The Shoe Fits ...

In 1888, John Craddock, A. P. Craddock, T.M. Terry and Max Guggenheimer formed Craddock-Terry and Company as a wholesale distributing house for "boots, shoes and rubbers." The firm later became The Craddock-Terry Shoe Corporation and in 1901 built the first shoe factory south of the Mason-Dixon Line.

22. Iron Man

In the late 1800's and early 1900's, H.E. McWane turned two companies, known as Lynchburg Foundry Company and Griffin Pipe Products, into prosperous enterprises whose principal activity was manufacturing cast-iron pipe and fittings. Lynchburg was the first southern city in which cast-iron pipe was made, and in 1936 pipe and fittings became one of Lynchburg's principal industries, employing some 600 persons in the city. Today, Griffin Pipe Products still manufactures cast-iron pipe for municipal water systems.

23. Black Poet

Anne Spencer, a black poet born February 8, 1882 in Henry County, is the only Virginian whose works are included in the Norton Anthology of Modern American and British Poetry. After settling in Lynchburg, she established Lynchburg's first lending library for blacks and helped found the local chapter of the NAACP. Frequent visitors to the Spencer home at 1313 Pierce Street included Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., Langston Hughes, Dr. George Washington Carver, W.E.B. DuBois and Jackie Robinson.

24. 139 Steps

Extending from Church Street to Court Street with 139 steps, Monument Terrace was built in 1924 as a memorial to citizens who fought and died in American wars. At that time the original basin, located at the base of the monument steps, was replaced with a listing of Lynchburg's WWI dead and Charles Keck's representative of a doughboy, "The Listening Post."

25. Lynchburg College

Virginia Christian College, later renamed Lynchburg College, was the first college to offer coeducation facilities in Central Virginia. The College began its first session in 1903 with 155 pupils. Although founder Dr. Josephus Hopwood believed in coeducation, men and women were not allowed to sit together at either classes or meals, unless they were brothers and sisters. Virginia Christian College was changed to Lynchburg College in 1919. ■
